ANNUAL MESSAGE.

For Several Weeks the President Has Had in Preparation His State Paper.

SUBSEQUENT EVENTS CHANGED IT

That Part Relating to the Negotiations Over the Isthmian Canal Had to Be Rewritten.

Extracts From the Original Message to the Regular Session of the Congress Were Given Out For Publication.

Washington, Nov. 14.—For several weeks President Roosevelt has had in preparation his annual message to the congress, to be presented at the opening of the regular session. That part of the message in which the president discussed the negotiations between the United States and the government of Colombia for isthmian canal treaty, it is stated, was completed about two weeks ago. Events which have occurred on the isthmus and in this country since that time have made it necessary for the president to completely rewrite that part of the message touching the canal negotiations.

In the opening sentence of his discussion of the negotiations with Colombia the president said:

"I regret to report that contrary to all expectations the government of the republic of Colombia refused to ratify the treaty for building a canal across the isthmus of Panama.

"High authorities on international law hold that the canal can be dug as an incident to exercising the power to prevent the obstruction of traffic across the isthmus. Nevertheless, in accordance with our settled policy of behaving with scrupulous fairness and generosity towards our weaker sister republics of the south, taking no position that can even by implication be treated as unfriendly, unless literally forced thereto, we have endeavored to provide for the building of the canal by treaty. In this treaty we went as far as it is possible for us to go in the direction of making concessions to the United States of Colombia. No further concerns can or should be made by this government.

"A private company which in the past undertook to build the canal has failed. The events of the last few years warrant us in now saying not only that the canal shall not be constructed by any foreign government, but that it is not to be constructed by any private company. It must, therefore, be dug by the government of the United States."

Referring further along to the territory bisected by the canal the president wrote:

"On the one hand, the United States desires to safeguard with scrupulous care the interest and the honor of such country or countries. On the other hand, in my judgment, it is time to declare that the beginning of the canal can not be much longer delayed. This nation does not desire to be unreasonable or impatient; but it can not and will not permit any body of men permanently to obstruct one of the great world highways of traffic; and refusal to permit the building of the canal amounts to such obstruction. Of course, to insist upon unreasonable terms is equivalent to a refusal."

"Reasonable time in the case of such an enterprise as this, an enterprise which has been thought of for nearly four centuries, which has been planned in detail and worked at for half a century, and which, when completed, will endure for ages and will change the geography of a hemisphere and the trade routes of the world must, of course, mean whatever time is necessary to convince ourselves that the course we are following is wise and proper.

"It seems evident that in a matter such as this we should finally decide which is the best route; and if the advantages of this route over any other possible route are sufficiently marked we should then give notice that we can no longer submit to trifling or insincere dealing on the part of those whom the accident of position has placed in temporary control of the ground through which the route must pass; that if they will come to an agreement with us in straightforward fashion we shall in return act not only with justice, but with generosity; and that if they fail to come to such agreement with us we must forthwith take the matter into our own hands."

STRIKE SPREADS.

Firemen in the Power House of the Chicago Street Railway Co. Go Out.

THIS REPUDIATES A CONTRACT.

Twenty-Five Cars Were Run on the Wentworth Avenue Line Under Police Protection Friday.

The Crowds That Lined the Streets Jeered and Hooted the Police and Non-Union Men Almost Without Intermission.

Chicago, Nov. 14.—Twenty-five cars run on the Wentworth avenue line without damage to the cars or injury to the non-union employees operating them was what the Chicago City Railway Co. was able to accomplish Friday with the assistance of the police department. The cars were run at three different times. In the first two runs the round trip was made in about three hours; in the third in about one-half the usual time, which is one and one-half hours.

While there was no active interference with the handling of the cars, such as attended the attempts to run cars Thursday, the crowds that lined the streets jeered and hooted the police and the non-union men almost without intermission. But two stones were hurled at the cars during the day, one being thrown by a woman, who made her escape in the crowd before the police could reach her, and the other being hurled from the new post office building, now being built. Neither did damage worth mentioning.

At nightfall the officials of the street car company announced that cars would be run Saturday on the Wentworth avenue line at the same hours as Friday and that attempts would be made to operate other lines, which were, however, not specified.

Shortly after this decision was announced the situation was complicated for the company by a sudden strike of the firemen employed in all six power houses owned by the company. The firemen's union made an agreement two days ago with the company which was to last for a year. There was a clause in the contract which gave the firemen the discretion to go on a sympathetic strike if the company declined to arbitrate with the employees now on strike. The company explained its attitude on arbitration and said that it had always been willing to arbitrate the question of wages. The firemen then signed the contract which was repudiated Friday evening. The officials of the firemen's union declared that they had ordered the strike because the company had declined their offer to mediate between the company and the employees now on strike.

When the news of this strike came to Manager McCulloch, he was indignant. "An agreement with a Chicago union," he declared, "is worth nothing. Our contract calling for one year's work is just two days old and it is broken. We will go right along, however, and this strike will not cripple us."

The calling out of the firemen involves others, water tenders, coal passers, ash handlers and coal supply men—250 in all. The real danger in this last strike lies in the attitude of the teamsters. They may decline to deliver coal to the company if non-union firemen are employed and the company has but three days' supply on hand. On this point General Manager McCulloch was undisturbed. "We will get all the coal we need," he declared, "and we will run right along. We have showed to-day that we can operate the cars if we are given proper police protection. As long as we are given that we will be able to conduct our business as usual."

During the afternoon an effort was made to bring about a probable adjustment of the strike. The members of the state board of arbitration called upon Manager McCulloch and upon the latter's suggestion went into conference with S. R. Bliss, counsel for the company, with the hope of arranging a settlement or at least a conference between the strikers and the officials of the road. Nothing definite was accomplished at the conference but another meeting has been arranged for Saturday, when a second attempt will be made to have the controversy submitted to arbitration. After Friday's meeting one of the members of the arbitration board said that the indications were that the management of the company would agree to arbitrate all the demands of the men with the exception of recognition of the union.

The works of the Lockhart Iron and Steel Co., at McKees Rocks, will after next Monday run on a more extensive scale. Twenty-seven more furnaces will be set to work, with three full shifts. This will give work to between 400 and 500 men.

The Deal For the Lease Pending for Some Time Completed.

Asheville, N. C., Nov. 14.—The deal which has been pending for some time between George W. Vanderbilt and Mr. Edgar B. Moore, of Kenilworth, for the leasing of the Biltmore estate was completed Friday. With the exception of 1,000 acres immediately surrounding the Biltmore mansion, Mr. Moore will have control for ten years of the vast estate which covers an area of 125,000 acres. This great tract of land will be converted into hunting preserves. A club of 100 members, representing rich society circles, will be formed by Mr. Moore for the purpose of hunting and fishing on the estate. Deer, bear, grouse, turkey and quail abound in large numbers. A staff of rangers and guards will patrol the estate to prevent the encroachments of poachers.

REFORMS IN POST OFFICES.

All Employees Below Foreman Will Be Classed as Clerks.

Washington, Nov. 14.—One of the reforms in post offices that will be advocated by the post office department is authority by which all clerks below the designation of foreman shall be classed in the future simply as clerks. This will abolish the titles of stampers, mailing clerks and a variety of other subordinate places whose duties are clerical, and it will enable transfers to be made without involving the change of employees being assigned to duties other than those to which they are technically designated.

WITH A BIG ARMY.

Gens. Reyes, Caballeros, Ospina and Holguin Reported to Be Marching on Panama.

ATTEMPT TO SUBDUCE ISTHMIANS.

All Parties and Classes Have Offered Their Lives and Property in Defense of the Territory.

Rumors Were Current That the United States Intended to Send Troops to Panama, But Official Denials Were Made.

Guayaquil, Ecuador, Nov. 14.—Gen. Plaza, president of Ecuador, has cabled to President Marroquin, of Colombia, sympathizing with him in the recent events on the isthmus of Panama. President Marroquin has replied thanking Gen. Plaza and adding that Gens. Reyes, Caballeros, Ospina and Holguin are marching on Panama with a large army to subdue the isthmians.

Lima, Peru, Nov. 14.—The Colombian minister to Peru has published here cablegrams received from his government, dated at Bogota, November 10, 11 and 12 respectively. The cablegrams say that the Colombian government has taken measures to suppress "The Isthmian traitors" and adds that all parties and all classes have offered to the government their lives and property in defense of the national territory.

Washington, Nov. 14.—Both Secretary Hay and Gen. Young, the chief of staff of the army, had retired when the bulletin announcing the army from Colombia was marching against the isthmians came, so that it was impossible to learn what action the government might take to meet the issue which will be raised.

Rumors were current Friday that the government intended to send United States troops to the isthmus of Panama, but positive official denials were made that such was the intention of the administration which some time ago asserted its purpose to prevent fighting that would endanger the free transit of the isthmus.

Colon, Nov. 14.—Cutters from the American warships here were dispatched Friday morning to stop the German steamer Markomannia, which was seen two miles off towing a launch towards the harbor. It was thought that the Markomannia was coming from a Colombian port, but it appears that she had been chartered at Bocas del Toro to bring the alcalde of that port to Colon. There was a big scare at Bocas del Toro on the receipt of news via Port Limon, Costa Rica, that the Colombian government was sending 5,000 troops to retake the port, which had recently declared its allegiance to the new republic, and the alcalde left on the Markomannia for Colon for the purpose of obtaining arms and ammunition with which to equip 500 volunteers to resist the expected Colombian attacks. The alcalde, however, has returned to Bocas del Toro to allay the fears of the populace and to give assurance that the landing of Colombian troops there will not be permitted.

He is a wealthy sugar planter, 400 miles south of the City of Mexico.

Washington, Nov. 14.—The formal recognition of the new Republic of Panama by the president of the United States took place Friday morning when M. "It throws hardly needed light on the possibilities of fraud at the Philadelphia election," observes the Pittsburgh Post, "that the total registration of the city 378,675, while the total registration of New York with Brooklyn thrown out was 361,384. In Philadelphia there was hardly a breath of interest in the election, while New York was in a turmoil of excitement, and has a population twice as large as that of Philadelphia, which boasts a registration, largely for repeating purposes, 17,000 in excess of that of New York. That tells the story of elections in Pennsylvania."

In the midst of Republican rejoicing over the great party victory on Ohio there comes a stern and disconcerting voice from Massachusetts, declaring that when one seeks in the returns from Ohio for "any sign of growing virtue in the R-publican party none appears." The Boston Herald, Independent Republican, says this, and adds:

"Hanna and Foraker, Nash and Cox, stand for all manner of political corruption, and all manner of abuse of power. So far as political morality is concerned, they are as unworthy and shameful as any Democrats in the land. Johnson, with his adopted Bryanism and his own peculiar Populism, was defeated; but the defeat was not a victory of right and justice, only the victory of a machine organized to promote criminal politics."

REPUBLICAN PROTEST AGAINST A REPUBLICAN SCHEME.

The Chicago Inter-Ocean, though a Republican journal, enters a vigorous protest against the removal of Senator Morgan from the Chairmanship of the Isthmian Canal Committee, as proposed by the administration clique. "The removal of Senator Morgan from the Chairmanship of the canal committee at this juncture will be a mistake," declares the Inter-Ocean. "Mr. Morgan, more than any other Senator, represents the non-partisan isthmian canal sentiment of the American people. He has stood, through Democratic and Republican administrations, as the foremost advocate in the Senate of an isthmian canal under American control. Before the committee on interoceanic canals was created he was Chairman of the select committee on the Nicaragua canal. He was made Chairman of the Senate canal committee by Republican votes. He should be continued as Chairman by R-publican votes. It is true that he prefers an isthmian canal on the Nicaragua route to one on the Panama route; so do most Americans. It is also true that Mr. Morgan favors a canal on the Panama route to no canal at all. In this spirit he voted at the last for the Spooner bill, and in the same spirit he undoubtedly would accept the views of the majority of the Senate as to the situation in Panama.

"The people know that Senator Morgan is enthusiastically in favor of an isthmian canal. They do not know that Senator Hanna is. The former has never wavered, in his twenty-six years of service in the Senate, in his loyalty to the canal idea; the latter never has convinced the people that he cares whether an isthmian canal were constructed or not.

"Mr. Morgan possibly has been at times wrong-headed and obstinate, but he has been all the time an uncompromising advocate of an isthmian canal. For this reason, if for no other, he should not be removed from the chairmanship of the canal committee. He is the most notable figure in the canal controversy. He has devoted the best years of his public life to a study of the canal question. He stands before the American people as a personification of canal ideals, and, now that we are confronted by a crisis in isthmian canal affairs, the Republican Senators, as a matter of policy and as a matter of court-ey, should retain Mr. Morgan in the chairmanship of the canal committee."

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT.

The Majority in Favor of It is Over Twenty Thousand.

R turns from all but four counties in Kentucky show that the constitutional amendment has been authorized by a majority of 20,001. There is a majority for it outside the city of Louisville, and more than two-thirds of the counties endorsed the proposition.

Of the cities and larger towns, Louisville, Lexington, Ashland, Maysville, Richmond, Danville, Russellville, Elizabethtown, Winchester, Mt. Sterling, Hopkinsville and Glasgow favored the amendment, while Frankfort, Covington, Newport, Owensboro, Henderson, Paducah and Bowling Green were lined up against it.

In Louisville, all the larger corporations, including the railroads, street railway companies, bridge and ferry companies, gas and electric light plants, the water company, heating companies, telephone and telegraph lines are exempted from the operations of the amendment, and these companies were, as a rule, indifferent to its fate during the campaign.

Platform of Men's League For Woman Suffrage.

It seems there is an organization in Great Britain known as the "Male Electors League for Woman Suffrage." Their platform contains the following reasons for their existence:

1. Because women equally with men are subject to law.
2. Because, being themselves one half of humanity, women are concerned as deeply as men in the legislation that affects humanity.
3. Because, therefore, the opinion of women as expressed by their vote would be of the highest service to the whole commonwealth.
4. Because the denial of this equal legislative right to women is the refusal of justice to half the human race, and a detriment to the whole.
5. Because under a system of partially representative government the interests and the lives of the unrepresented always suffer.
6. Because experience has proved that men alone are as unfit to legislate for women, as women alone would be unfit to legislate for men.
7. Because while "taxation without representation is tyranny," legislation without representation is yet greater tyranny.
8. Because by the legal recognition and establishment of women's citizenship the intellect and character and reciprocal estimation of both sexes would be raised.
9. Because the help of politically enfranchised women is indispensable for the upbuilding of the higher humanity that is to be.
10. Because 'The woman's cause is man's; they rise or sink together, dwarf'd or godlike, bond or free.'

"Measly Work."

[Georgetown News-Democrat]

The state of Panama, of the Republic of Colombia, seceded one week and the next week the United States recognized its independence—before its government was fairly set up. The territory seceding is only about five and one-half times as large as Brown County and contains a population of 400,000. The United States, that has been through the throes of secession and established a precedent against it, recognizes such a little, measly Republic as this! Thank the Lord, it is not Democrats who are engaged in such work.

Congressman Kehoe introduced these bills Friday: To replace the Kentucky State militia with provisional Kentucky militia, on a pensionable status; appropriating $400,000 to complete the improvement of Big Sandy river, from Louisa to the Ohio river; $25,000 for a fish hatchery in Northwestern Kentucky; $612,900 to establish a permanent camping ground in Boyd and Greenup counties, and $21,000 for the ice piers at Maysville.

The mother of Mr. Lawrence Clark fell at the home of her daughter this morning and broke one of her legs. She is nearly eighty-five years old.

HORTICULTURE BUILDING.

Description of a Colossal Palace on the World's Fair Grounds.

The Horticulture Building stands on Skinner Hill, 250 feet south of the Agriculture Building. The structure is in the shape of a Greek cross, with a center pavilion and two wings. The center pavilion is 400 feet square; the wings are each 104 by 230 feet. They are divided from the center pavilion by glass partitions, and the floor of each is nine feet lower than that of the center pavilion. This difference in elevation produces a monumental effect, which is further heightened by the use in the main entrance on the north of two towers about 150 feet high.

The eastern wing of the building will be almost entirely of glass and will be used as a conservatory. A hot water heating plant is to be installed in the cellar of this wing and the pipes are to be led throughout the wing. The specifications provide that this wing shall be made airtight. It is the intention to force plants here during the winter and spring preceding the opening of the exposition for use in landscape and bedding work about the grounds. The heat will also have the effect of saving some of the valuable plants sent for exhibition from the cold, which comes during the late autumn immediately after the closing of the exposition. The glass slides allow the admission of the sun throughout the day. In this wing will be shown specimens of plant culture grown in different countries for use and ornament, and the forced culture of vegetables and fruits.

The west wing of the building will be used for general horticultural exhibits. In the basement cold storage will be provided for fruit to be exhibited in the building, and for this reason the cellar has double walls packed with sawdust. In the basement there will also be an unpacking room which will keep the shipping debris out of sight. Three sides of this wing will have galleries, two of which will be used as restaurants. Tables will be set here so that the visitor may observe the exhibits below while taking luncheon. The gallery is easily accessible by stairs from the center pavilion and from the main floor. The southern gallery will be used as offices for the working force of the Department of Horticulture.

The center pavilion will contain the pomological exhibits, including, according to the classification, pomaceous and stone fruits, such as apples, peaches, nectarines, etc.; citrus fruits, such as oranges, lemons, limes, etc.; tropical and sub-tropical fruits, such as pineapples, bananas, olives, figs, etc.; small fruits, such as strawberries, gooseberries, etc., and nuts.

The construction of the building shows no change from the accepted method of the other buildings. The exhibit spaces are covered by trusses, which range in span from 72 feet over the center aisle to 48 feet over the side aisles.

THE GAS TURNED ON.

Man Found Unconscious in the Annex Hotel, Taylorville, Ill.

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 14.—A. D. Bellmer, supposedly from Kansas City, was found lying unconscious in his room at the Annex hotel, Taylorville, with the gas in his room turned on. It was evidently a case of suicide. He died shortly after being discovered. From letters on his person it was evident he had been corresponding with a young woman through a matrimonial agency, with a view to marriage, and was on his way to Edinburg, near Taylorville.

ASK YOUR NEIGHBOR.

Hundreds of Maysville Citizens Can Tell You All About It.

Home endorsement, the public expression of Maysville people, should be evidence beyond dispute for every Maysville reader. Surely the experience of friends and neighbors, cheerfully given by them, will carry more weight than the utterances of strangers residing in far-away places. Read the following:

Mr. C. L. Hubbard, dairyman, of 325 West Third street, says: "I have the greatest faith in Doan's Kidney Pills. The use of less than one box ended a disturbed condition on the kidneys and an inflammation of the bladder. After some time it returned but in a lesser degree and I procured another box of Doan's Kidney Pills at J. Jas. Wood & Son's drug store. Use of it substantiated the opinion I had already formed of this effective preparation."

Three friends wrote the name of G. W. Jarrell, Democrat, on the ballot and these three votes elected him.

IT IS SAFE TO SAY

That we clothe the majority of well-dressed men and boys in Mason County. Our Stein-Bloch, Adler Bros' Men's Suits and Overcoats and our Garson Meyer young men's Suits and Overcoats are the magnets that draw the intelligent buyer. Whilst these lines are the highest types of tailor-made clothes, our prices are no higher, indeed in many instances not as high, as you would pay for Clothing that does not compare with above lines. The same conditions rule in our Shoe and Hat department. THE BEST ONLY, and prices modest and conservative.

See our fall Manhattan Cheviot Shirts. They are simply "elegant." Our Underwear, Cap and Gloves stock is so large and comprehensive that we can please everybody.

At last accounts he was reported getting along very nicely. He was fortunate to escape without more serious injuries.
